

New Hats and Caps.

Latest style Corduroy Tam Caps.
New lot of those Bargain Pants and Suits.
Also Dry Goods and Notions.
Crockery, Glass, Enamel and Tinware.
Low Prices.

E. E. HARRISON, MANAGER.

Norman's Dry Goods Store.

A Special Communication of Blue Ridge Lodge, No. 92, A. F. M., will be held next Friday evening, August 27th, at 8:30 o'clock. Work in 1st degree. W. C. HUGHES, W. M. W. O. WHITE, Secretary. (adv.)

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

—Lime and cement. Plenty for all. W. M. Brown, Walhalla.—Adv.
—Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hedden, of West Union, on August 20th, a daughter.
—The Paul Hayne Circle will meet with Mrs. J. A. Steck on Friday, August 27, at 5 o'clock.

—The Auction Club will meet with Mrs. J. A. Steck on Saturday, August 28, at 4:30 o'clock.

—Mrs. J. H. Ernest and children are attending the Wesleyan camp-meeting at Central this week.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Bauknight and son, John Edward, returned last Friday night from a pleasant trip North.

—T. E. Alexander sells Rock Hill buggies. Walhalla, S. C. adv.-lf.

—Miss Bessie E. V. Keil returned to Charleston Saturday, after spending ten days with her mother, Mrs. M. J. Keil, near town.

—Fred L. Sahlmann left for his home at Charleston Monday. He came up on the excursion and stopped with his cousin, Mrs. M. J. Keil.

—Mrs. Jessie Burley Boozer, of Newberry, was with relatives in the Bear Swamp section last week. She was accompanied by her son, Master George, Jr.

—Wanted—Small quantity unbruised quinces and Indian peaches. J. D. Cappelmann, at Mr. Schroder's, Main and Tugaloo streets, Walhalla.—Adv. 34*

—Mrs. J. M. Counts, of Newberry; Mesdames W. B. Dilworth and W. T. Alexander, of Conners, were among relatives and friends in the vicinity of Walhalla last Thursday.

—John E. Bauknight, representing the firm of C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, left Monday for the Eastern markets to make the fall purchases for the firm. He will be absent for a week.

—Sidney Adams, after spending a few days here with relatives and friends, returned to his home at Rock Hill Monday. Mrs. Adams and little daughter will remain for some time.

—You cannot appreciate the prices unless you see our goods. Carter's Cash Store.—Adv.

—Hon. John D. Cappelmann returned to his home in Charleston Saturday, stopping over in Columbia Sunday with his son, F. W. Cappelmann, Esq. Mr. Cappelmann was warmly received in Walhalla by his many friends.

—Harry R. Hughes, Esq., left Monday for points in the mountains of North Carolina, traveling by auto. He was accompanied by his brother-in-law, R. E. Bowen, of Norris, Pickens county. They will spend about a week.

—Chickens, eggs, beef cattle and hides of all kinds wanted. I pay cash. R. D. Oelkers, Walhalla.—Adv. 34*

—The Oconee Live Stock Insurance Association met at the Court House yesterday, a good attendance being present, though not as large as was hoped for. The favorable weather for farm work doubtless prevented the attendance of many who would otherwise have been present. All the old officers were re-elected except one director, whose place was filled by the election of Jas. H. Brown, of Oakway. The association is in good shape and is handling a large volume of insurance on live stock in Oconee.

—Time for Seeding—Winter rye, Abruzzi rye, oats, barley, rape, crimson clover. Plenty on hand. See us for your fall seeds. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla.—Adv.

—We are requested to announce that the second session of the Long Creek Baptist Academy will begin on Wednesday, September 1st, 9 o'clock being the hour for opening. Appropriate exercises will be held, and all patrons and friends of the institution are cordially urged to be present.

—J. R. Earle and family left last Sunday for Cleveland, Ga., where they will visit Mrs. Earle's sister Mrs. Wesley Ashe. They made the trip by private conveyance. While in Georgia they will attend a camp-meeting near Cleveland. They will be absent from Walhalla about two weeks.

—146 acres, two miles from Walhalla, on public road; 25 acres upland in cultivation; 15 acres good bottom; 4-room residence and good barn; two tenant houses. Ideal place for stock farm; $12.50 per acre, half cash, balance one and two years at 8 per cent interest. See Moss & Littleton, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Dr. Jas. H. Crawford, of Martin, Ga., spent a short while Monday among his old Walhalla friends, who were delighted to meet him again. He was accompanied by his little son, James, and they drove through the country in Dr. Crawford's Hudson car. His friends here are pleased to learn that he is prospering and enjoying splendid health.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sitton, of Tamassee, will move to Walhalla early in September, when they will take charge of the Terrace and conduct a boarding house. They had anticipated coming to town during the early part of this month, but the lease of the property had not expired and Mr. and Mrs. Fennell decided to remain until the expiration of the lease. Mr. and Mrs. Sitton will be gladly welcomed on their return to town.

—For Rent—Ten-room residence near hosiery mill; nice shades and lawn; good pasture lot. Suita for boarding house; only $10 per month. Apply to Dietrich Hosiery Mills, Walhalla.—Adv.

—A big horse swappers' convention will be held in Walhalla next week—Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Everybody and his brother will be here. Bring all your beasts of burden. There will be big doins on those days. Fred Alexander is the general manager, and he knows how to make things move—even if they are almost dead. Come. You will be heartily welcomed by the tried and "true" traders of this section of the county.

—Mrs. Jas. H. Darby entertained most charmingly in honor of her sister, Mrs. C. P. Corn, of Johnston, on Thursday of last week. After the guests had all arrived Mrs. Darby handed each a contest card out in the shape of a horse, questions to be answered by the names of animals. When time was called Mrs. Herndon and Mrs. J. A. Steck had all correct and drew for first prize, which fell to Mrs. Herndon, and proved to be a beautiful life-size statue of a bull pup. The honoree was also presented with a duplicate figure. Miss Eloise Strother won second prize, a lovely figure of a setter dog, while Mrs. Jack Darby drew consolation, a small bisque deer. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Strother and Mrs. J. W. Bell. The guests at this delightful "at home" were Mesdames Jack Darby, E. L. Herndon, J. A. Steck, J. W. Bell and Mrs. C. P. Corn, of Johnston, and Mrs. Dell G. McAllister, of Columbia; Misses Janie Neville, Eloise Strother, Janie Harrison, Gertrude Smith, Elizabeth Stridling and Miss Jordan.

—Fresh milk cows for sale. W. M. Brown, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Mrs. Prause and son Harold are visiting in Walhalla for three weeks.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Good spent the week-end at Fair Play with relatives and friends.

—Miss Carrie Darby Harrison is visiting her sister, Mrs. Hayne G. Jones, of Tamassee.

—The Methodist Guild will meet with Miss Idah Pitchford Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hughes and little daughter spent yesterday in Atlanta.

—Everybody go to Ellison's Market, Walhalla, for ice. Prompt delivery. Call for particulars.—Adv.

—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brandt will entertain at a dance Thursday evening in honor of the Charleston visitors to Walhalla.

—Mrs. L. M. Brown and little daughter, Dorothy, of West Union, are the guests for a few days of Mrs. Hayne G. Jones, at Tamassee.

—For Sale, at a Bargain—One Clemson uniform. Size about 37; has never been worn. If interested call at Carter & Co.'s and get particulars.—Adv.

—Mr. and Mrs. Gus C. Arve and two grandchildren, of the Long Creek section, were guests the first of this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Grahl.

—Miss Kate Kangeter, Elsie Renken, and Fritz Sahlman, who have been visiting among friends here for ten days, left for their homes in the City by the Sea Monday.

—Fair Dodd and L. W. Meakin, of Atlanta, spent several days this and last week with their families at the home of Mrs. R. C. Strother in West Union.

—Three shingle mill outfits for sale. Good shape. W. M. Brown, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Miss Ruth Harris left this morning for her home at Richmond, Va., after spending two weeks here very pleasantly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. W. Shelor.

—Mrs. Chas. S. Reid and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, after spending the summer at the home of Mrs. R. C. Strother, in West Union, returned this week to their home at Woodbury, Ga.

—Mrs. Rena B. Harley and Miss Hilda Chaffin, of Brunswick, Ga., arrived in Walhalla last week and are spending some time here visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Crisp, in Midway.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. Waters, of Vienna, Ga., A. J. Waters and daughter, Miss Thelma, of Cordele, Ga., were guests Saturday and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. A. Smith, near town.

—Married, at the office of the officiating officer, John F. Craig, Clerk of Court, on August 22d, Wm. A. Miller and Mrs. Nannie Williams, both of Seneca. Hearty good wishes are extended by numerous friends.

—Nitrogen, the stuff that insures good crops of clover and other cover crops; 5-acre quantity, $5; 1-acre quantity, $1; garden size, 50c. "Makes two blades grow where one grew before." See us. C. W. & J. E. Bauknight, Walhalla.—Adv.

—Married, on Sunday, August 15, at the residence of the officiating officer, John F. Craig, Clerk of Court, Miss Gracie L. Miller and Stiles Morton, both of Walhalla. We join the friends of the couple in extending congratulations and good wishes.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. White and children, of Wolf Stake, and Miss Cora Kelley, of Pickens county, and W. B. Cooley, of Walhalla, recently formed a camping party to the mountains. They visited at Cashier's, Tuxedo, Sapphire and other points. The trip was greatly enjoyed.

—Married, by Clerk of Court John F. Craig, at his office in the Court House, on August 21st, George M. Glazener and Miss Pearl Sudduth. Mr. Glazener is a son of W. Henry Glazener, of the New Hope section, and the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sudduth, of Seneca. We extend hearty congratulations.

—H. L. Brandt gave his visitors a great deal of pleasure during the past week by auto excursions to the various places of interest throughout the county. The sights and scenery afforded by such places as around Walhalla, Clemson College, the Rock House, the Tunnel and various waterfalls were greatly enjoyed by the visitors.

—Horses, mules, buggies, wagons and farming implements. W. M. Brown, Walhalla.—Adv.

—We are in receipt of announcement to the effect that a new post office has been established in Oklahoma, the name being "Coneross." This name is borrowed from Oconee's Coneross. The post office is located on land owned by M. L. Alexander, formerly of Oconee, and the postmaster is A. A. Cobb, also an Oconeean. The new office just established is four miles west of Loam, 8 miles south of Wilson, 7 miles east of Orr, 7 miles northwest of Oswalt, and is on "Sec. 16 T. 6 S. R. 2 W.," according to the designations of that country.

A Money-Saving Message IN EVERY PRICE TAG.

That's the big attraction at this Fair-Warning Sale, where sharp savings prevail. The values featured for Saturday are a revelation.

Extra Specials for Saturday.

A 25-pound bag of fine Granulated Sugar to go Saturday for $1.49 a sack. One sack to every customer whose purchase amounts to $1. Groceries excluded.
Eight pounds of fresh Roasted Rio Coffee for $1.

Our prices during this special sale, to reduce our stock quickly, are wonderfully low. See the big circular for other prices, or just come and see the goods and prices.

FREE---Thursday, Friday, Saturday.

With every $1 purchase one whole ticket to picture show. With every 50c. purchase one half ticket to picture show. Groceries and Extra Specials excluded.

We guarantee every purchase. Your money refunded if not satisfied.

Carter Spot Cash Store, Walhalla.

—Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. Glenn D. Abbott, August 19th, a daughter.

—Mrs. T. T. Fowler and children, of Ingold, N. C., are visiting among relatives and friends near Walhalla.

—Rev. and Mrs. G. M. Wilcox and children are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox, of Elberton, Ga.

—Fred C. Hammer returned the first of this week from a visit of ten days to Washington, where he had been visiting his mother.

—Carter's Spot Cash Store, Walhalla, has "a money-saving message" for you. It will be found in another column of this issue. Read it.

—Mrs. Nannie B. Williams has returned to her home at Cross Hill after a two weeks' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Verner.

—Born, unto Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Goodson, near Walhalla, August 18, a daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Goodson reside in the Rocky Knoll section.

—Mrs. L. M. Murphy and children, of Anderson, are spending some time in Walhalla, stopping at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Isbell, West Main street.

—We are requested to announce that the contract to clean off the Neville cemetery will be let at the cemetery next Saturday afternoon, August 28th, at 3 o'clock. The work will be let to the lowest bidder.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Knox, of West Union, left Monday for Atlanta, where they will spend a few days. Mrs. Knox will, during her stay in Atlanta, make her selections of fall millinery. They drove through in their car.

—C. R. D. Burns, Esq., left the latter part of last week for Hendersonville, N. C., from which point he will visit other sections of the North Carolina mountains. He will be absent from Walhalla for a week or ten days.

—We are indebted to our good friend, W. O. White, for a basket of fine fruit—grapes and pears—"laid right in our hands" Monday last. Mr. White knows a good thing when he raises it, but he likes to have his friends "pass judgment." We pronounce his treat A-No. 1.

—Claude W. Reid left last week for Woodstock, Ala., where he expects to locate and enter business. Mrs. Reid and child are spending some time in Walhalla at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Pitchford. They will join Mr. Reid in Alabama later.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wise and son, of Trenton, S. C., are expected to arrive in Walhalla this afternoon for a visit of a few days to Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Verner. They will be most cordially welcomed by many friends here. Mrs. Wise is pleasantly remembered by many as Miss Adelle Hattiwanger.

—Mrs. J. F. Powers and daughter, Miss Mary, left the first of this week to visit relatives and friends at Ninety-Six, where they will spend a week or ten days before returning to their home at Meridian, Miss. Mrs. Powers and daughter have been spending some time near Walhalla visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Hughes.

CLOSING OUT

CROSSETT'S

LOW CUT SHOES

Your Choice $2.50 as long as they last.

C. W. PITCHFORD, WALHALLA, S. C.

—Rev. L. M. Lyda last Sunday closed a revival meeting at Return Baptist church after having conducted the meetings, unassisted by any other minister, for some days. The church, it is reported, has been greatly revived and built up. Ten new members were added, a prayer meeting was organized, and arrangements were made to hold these services once a week.

—Following are the visitors at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Brandt: Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Renken and daughter, Miss Elsie; Mrs. J. H. C. Drews and son Burwick; Henry Kangeter and daughter, Miss Kate; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Pfahler and little daughter, Katharine; Mrs. E. Heinsohn; Mrs. Lena Puckhaber and Master Willie Puckhaber; Fritz Sahlman, all of Charleston.

—Protracted services will be begun at the Walhalla Baptist church next Sunday, services being held morning and night, at the usual hours of 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. The meeting will be in charge of the pastor, Rev. T. L. Smith, until Tuesday morning next, when Rev. T. V. McCaul, of Clemson College, will take charge, continuing to do the preaching until the close of the meeting, which will last for a week or ten days. The Baptists of Walhalla are urgent in their invitation to all other denominations to attend the services and take active part therein. The general public is also cordially invited to attend as regularly as possible.

(Locals and Personal Continued on Fifth Page.)

FOR SALE—1ht pure-bred Duroc Jersey I two months old; $4 each. G. O. A. HARRISON, Walhalla. 23-

RAISE GOOD PIGS.—I offer service Duroc Jersey Boar (Twittale's Best, Register No. 44807). See me for particulars. JOE N. DAVIS, Walhalla, R. F. D. No. 2. 35*

TO STOCK BREEDERS—You will find at my stables in Walhalla a fine Holstein Bull and Poland China Boar for service. Call and see these fine animals. Improve your stock. W. M. BROWN. 20-

SPECIAL OFFER—To patients coming from Oconee County to our Greenville office for eye work: As we are members of Chamber of Commerce, we refund railroad fares. A. A. ODOM, Consulting Optometrist-Optician; President The Globe Optical Co., Masonic Temple, Greenville, S. C. 9-1f.

WALHALLA'S DRUG STORE,

(NORMAN CO., Proprietors.)

WHERE YOU GET MORE FOR YOUR MONEY.

ALWAYS SOMETHING NEW AND ATTRACTIVE.

Come in and see the mysterious clock, the wonderful invention of the times. We will have you guessing often. Lots of prizes and surprises.

BRING ALL YOUR CLEAN MEDICINE BOTTLES.

NORMAN'S DRUG STORE.